PRESS RELEASE

Mastercam 2027 Receives Best of Category Recognition at Globee Awards® for Manufacturing Technology Innovation

For Immediate Release
November 5, 2026

TOLLAND, CT — November 5, 2026 —Mastercam, the world's leading CAD/CAM software solution, is proud to announce that Mastercam 2027 has been named a Gold Globee® Winner and awarded Best of Category in the Manufacturing, Industrial or Industry 4.0 Product or Service category at the Globee Awards.

The recognition honors Mastercam's continued innovation in transforming traditional CAM through AI-assisted software, intelligent automation, connected workflows, and advanced simulation capabilities.

For more than 40 years, Mastercam has helped manufacturers solve increasingly complex production challenges. Recent innovations, including Mastercam Copilot, Mastercam EverPath Technology, and enhancements introduced in Mastercam 2027, have expanded the platform beyond traditional CAM programming, helping manufacturers improve productivity, streamline workflows, and reduce programming complexity.

"Receiving this recognition from the Globee Awards is a testament to our commitment to helping manufacturers work smarter and more efficiently," said Russ Bukowski, President of Mastercam. "By integrating AI-assisted programming, intelligent automation, and advanced simulation directly into the manufacturing workflow, we are empowering manufacturers to navigate increasing complexity while maximizing productivity and process reliability."

Mastercam's innovations support manufacturers across industries including aerospace, automotive, medical device, and heavy industry, helping them accelerate programming, respond quickly to engineering changes, and manufacture highly complex parts with confidence.

Today, Mastercam is trusted by more than 450,000 installations worldwide and serves a growing community of manufacturers, educators, and students preparing the next generation of skilled machinists.
